

UNIQUE DESIGN of the Parasol, Crenshaw and Pacific Coast Hwy., makes this restaurant-coffee shop a landmark in Torrance. The restaurant is celebrating its grand opening

July 17, 18 and 19, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, at which time owner-manager Angelo Pappas is giving away parasols.

Torrance's Parasol Celebrates Opening

The Parasol — Torrance's newest and most unusual restaurant and coffee shop, which is constructed in a circle and designed as a parasol — is celebrating its grand opening July 17, 18, 19, Mon., Tues., and Wed.

At this event, Angelo Pappas, owner and manager, is giving away free, colorful, full-size parasols to mothers and smaller ones to little girls visiting the restaurant, which is open 24 hours daily. Located at Crenshaw and Pacific Coast Highway, the unique restaurant has a coffee shop and dining room. Its front door faces the intersection.

Pappas, who has been awaiting the opening of the restaurant since 1957, when the idea originated, said an architect suggested the unusual circular shape for his restaurant and he went from there to come up with the parasol theme.

This theme is carried throughout the interior and exterior of the novelty structure. Materials from all over the world were gathered to complement the unusual restaurant. Custom-made chandeliers, each with three parasol-shaped shades, are a part of the exciting decor. Imported tile in regular and irregular shapes—in pink, brown and black—blend with the imported gold wallpaper to be found within the circular restaurant.

The menu at the Parasol, which incorporates planning and thought with reasonable prices, offers a variety selection for any meal or snack. No need to hurry, the Parasol is open 24 hours. The Parasol, with its opening at Torrance, is adding imagination and uniqueness to the growing community which, because of such qualities, has been able to grow into an All-American City.

VACATION TIME means swim time at El Camino College, where nearly 1000 persons utilize college pools daily for instruction and recreation. Youthful swimmers take instruction above.
